

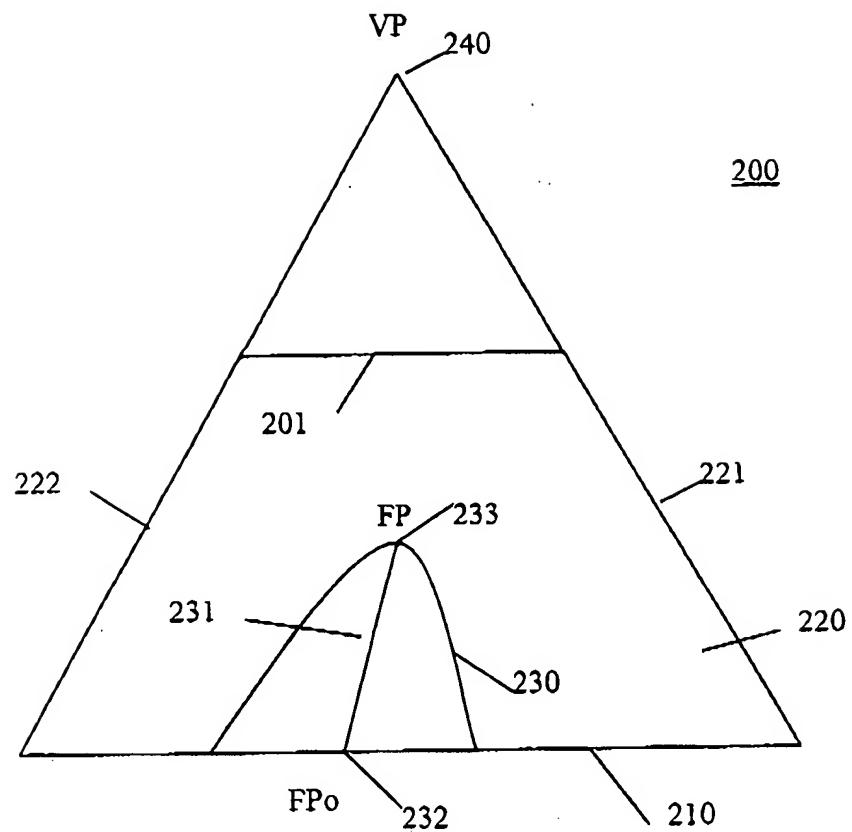

FIG. 1

Best Available Copy

FIG. 2

Best Available Copy

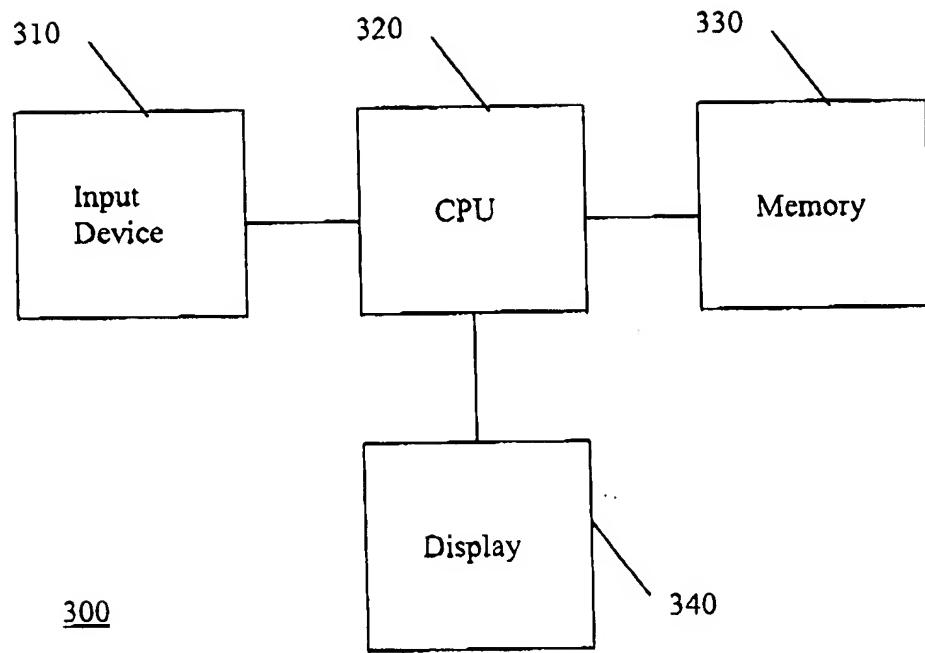

FIG. 3

Best Available Copy

400

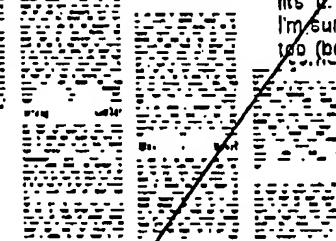

THE GLOBE AND MAIL
A deadly outbreak,
and unanswered questions

Tales of two presidents

Ministry of musical chairs

THE GLOBE AND MAIL
A deadly outbreak,
and unanswered questions

410

420

THE GLOBE AND MAIL
Show us the names
behind the money

they are "independent contractors," and so don't qualify for pensions, UI or vacation pay. Their case is pending. These people are virtually invisible in our society, yet I find them at least as interesting as Tom Long. Now I'm just guessing, but I doubt The Globe considered reassigning John Ibbotson to them. Is it because Tom Long is important, politically and economically, and they aren't? Yet the two biggest employers in North America are temp agencies. Forty-six per cent of workers are "contingent" like them. They ought to match the glam "media image" of the new work force, said Deena Ladd, who organized the meeting, "but I don't know a working person who fits it. Certainly not us in this room." I'm sure Tom Long has a rich life story, too (boy grows up comfy in Samia, beat the Chretien corral

THE GLOBE AND MAIL
Don't slam the door
too quickly

460

470

430

450

440

FIG. 4

Best Available Copy

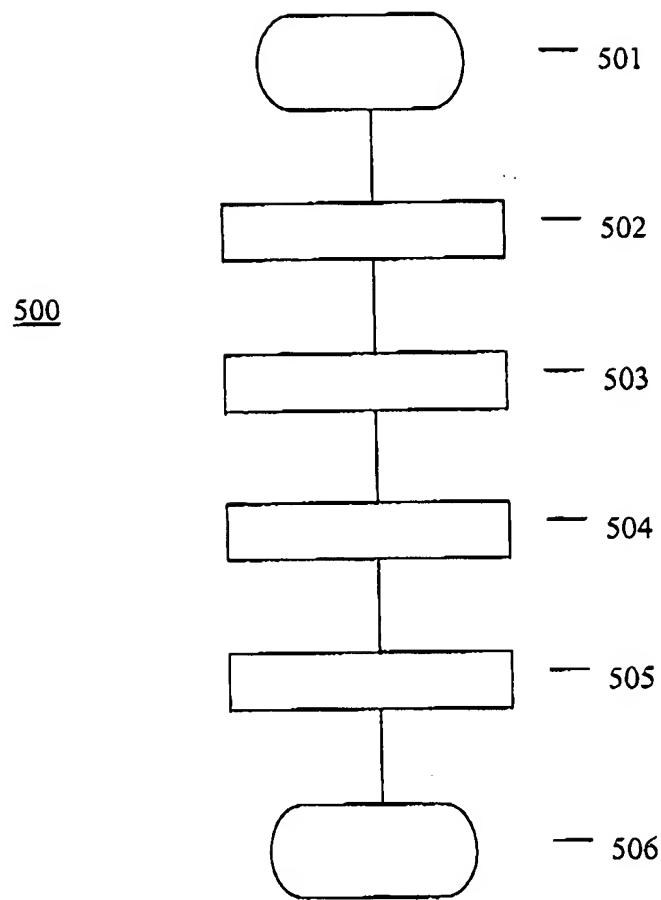

FIG. 5